Robert Trent Jones' courses are noted for their artistic landscaping, innovative use of bunkers, liberal use of water hazards, and deft placement of greens and hazards that encourage a high level of strategy. He believed that golf should be a no risk; no reward sport and his designs encouraged daring play. Jones received the 1987 Old Tom Morris Award from the Golf Course Superintendents Association of America, GCSAA's highest honor. He was also inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame in 1987 as well.

The 18-hole "Link Hills" course at the Link Hills Country Club facility in Greeneville, Tennessee features 6,733 yards of golf from the longest tees for a par of 71 . The course rating is 71.8 and it has a slope rating of 121 on Bermuda grass. The Link Hills golf course opened in 1955. Bobby Ward manages the course as the Golf Professional.
